The Word of the Laird

The Word of the Laird

Today's first reading relates Stephen's martyrdom. As it is related in the Acts, Stephen aligns himself with Christ, praying for his persecutors that they may be forgiven as Christ prayed for the forgiveness of those who crucified Him.

Our second reading is the conclusion of the Book of Revelation. It is replete with the expectation that Christ will return in the fulness of His glory.

The Gospel reading is from Chapter 17 of John, the Farewell Discourse. Jesus here prays for all who will believe that there may be the unity reflecting that of Jesus and His Father.

Thanks be to God. Alleluia! Alleluia!

Wear Red Next Week for Pentecost

We wear red on Pentecost as a symbolic representation of the descent of the Holy Spirit upon the apostles and other followers of Christ. The use of red serves as a powerful reminder of the transformative power of faith and the abundant blessings that come with it. It is also a reminder that our fleshly life has become suffused with the burning fire of the Holy Spirit, our lives set aflame with divine love.

Birthright of Rochester

As an honor to our Holy Mother Mary and in celebration of Mother's Day, Social Ministry would like to offer our parishioners an opportunity to help new mothers and their young babies. Birthright of Rochester offers love, friendship and support to pregnant women and new moms. To support their mission, each of our churches will have containers available in the Narthex the weeks of May 25th, June 1st and June 8th. Birthright's needs are infants to 2T clothing, diaper cream, diaper wipes, size 3,4,5 diapers. Gently used or new clothing are all appreciated.

Much appreciation and many thanks!
